Dear Jimmie:

We have just received January Action and are pleased with the makeup and features. The addition of Joe Barnett and the special by Ira North will help greatly. You may have to coax Ira about preparing his manuscripts but feel free to do so.

I am wondering about the possibility of getting on a better production schedule. I did not remember always being a month behind with the issues. However, I have a small inkling of the personal burden you bear and cannot begin to say enough in appreciation for the unique service you are rendering. It will up-grade our publication, however, if we can get on a more nearly accurate schedule.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
